II. In the year 1890, the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions published the first volume of the "Annals of the Chinese Missions." This volume contains a full and complete history of the missions in China, from the first establishment of a mission in 1807 to the present time. It is a valuable work, and one which every student of the history of the missions in China should possess. The second volume, which is now in the press, will contain a full and complete history of the missions in China, from the first establishment of a mission in 1807 to the present time. It is a valuable work, and one which every student of the history of the missions in China should possess.

His most respectful
 Dear Sir,
 Yours truly,
 J. G. BURTON.
